

Transformed PIT shows great progress as opening day grows closer

Pittsburgh International Airport is undergoing an airport-wide modernization designed to reflect, connect and serve the community. The Transformed PIT will open its doors soon, giving Pittsburgh the airport they deserve.

Recently, the airport has made major strides, most recently with the addition of the iconic Calder that has been part of PIT's legacy for decades.

Check Blue Sky News to see the most recent photo updates on the modernized PIT terminal. Opening Day will be announced soon, so stay tuned!